DALE WATSON IS A BROWNING MAN —

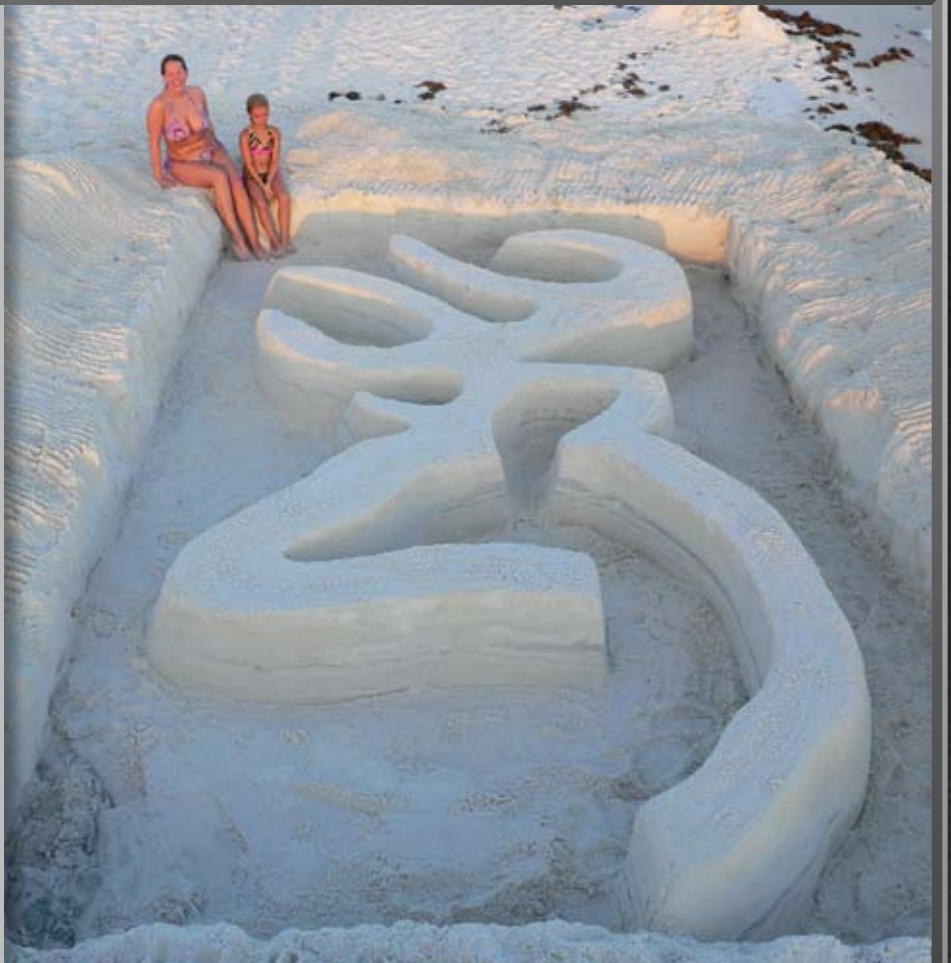

Dale Watson is as passionate about the outdoors as a person gets.

Whether Dale is stalking mule deer in Montana, whitetail in Texas, catching rooster fish in Costa Rica or spear fishing off the coast of Florida, his Browning firearms are never off his radar.

His enthusiasm for Browning even carried over to his family vacation last summer. "Someone handed me a magazine with a Show Us Your Buckmark ad in it," said Dale. "Pretty soon we had an army of people digging a giant Buckmark out of the sand. Our biggest concern was getting it done before the tide came in!"

Because of Dale's enthusiasm for the Buckmark, his next Browning is on us.
