LARRY GRIFFITH IS A BROWNING MAN —

As evidenced by his collection of classic Auto-5s, Larry Griffith's (left) love of Browning shotguns goes back a long way.

Larry relies on his Browning shotguns when hunting pheasant in the vast fields of the Midwest. "My Brownings are a part of me," said Larry. "I love the balance and fast swing. Even the ring when the bolt closes — it's the sound of Browning quality."

Larry's son Wade (right) saw a Show Us Your Buckmark entry and the pair decided that the huge boulder in the front yard would be the perfect way to show their loyalty to Browning and the Buckmark.

Thanks to Larry's creativity and skill, his next Browning is on us.

Browning Silver Hunter 12 and 20 Gauge

When your shooting situation calls for the most reliable, softest recoiling shotgun available, look no further than the Browning Silver® autoloaders. The Silver is powered by the proven Active Valve gas system and features the same high standards of fit, finish and performance that Browning shotguns have long been recognized for. No Silver exemplifies these traits better than the new 20 gauge Hunter models. These lightweight wonders handle as fine as they look and are ready for your next adventure.
