TRAVIS TALLEY IS A BROWNING MAN —

Travis Talley has had an affection for Browning and the great outdoors as long as he can remember. Since campfires and hunting trips go together, it was natural for Travis to come up with this hot idea.

Travis, a CAD programmer, carefully cut 12 Buckmarks out of quarter-inch steel for his custom fire ring. "It took about two hours to cut and roll it," said Travis. "I like it because it's something we'll use, and it gets a lot of compliments."

Travis plans on serving a platter of whitetail steaks to family and friends, cooked over his unique Buckmark fire ring.

Travis's creative and practical use of the Buckmark means his next Browning is on us.

Browning X-Bolt Hunter and Medallion

The Browning X-Bolt™ represents the new benchmark in bolt-action rifle design. The all-new adjustable three-lever Feather Trigger provides you with a crisp pull having virtually no take-up or creep and minimal overtravel. The X-Lock scope mounting system uses four screws per base instead of two for precise optics mounting. The convenient bolt unlock button gives an added measure of safety during loading and unloading. An Inflex Technology recoil pad offers greater comfort with every shot.
